CAREER OBJECTIVE

I am a student in computer science with a passion for exploring several fields of computer science and technology. I enjoy writing readable, efficient, and self-documenting code which is perfect for collaborative teamwork. I've been using HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, PHP/MySQL, Python (Django) for building modern websites and concepts. I'm a self-taught programmer and I'm always hungry to learn new techniques as it's my passion.
